

The Wilmette Junior High & Highcrest Middle School PTOs
Together with District 39 Present:

Navigating Social Conflicts

Parent Education Event - Grades 5-8

Social conflict, bullying, social media...the tween years have become an increasingly more complex social arena to navigate. How can parents support healthy interpersonal growth and development in their children during these critical years?

Dr. Renee Dominguez and Associates will address these topics as well as provide parents the opportunity to take part in clinician-lead discussion groups to explore applications for their families.

Location:
